THE CELEBRATION.

The Queen's Birthday and How it was Observed.

THE ATHLETIC SPORTS.

Splendid Baseball Match—Lacrosse and Cricket.

THE REGATTA.

A Large Gathering of People—Beautiful Weather.

The anniversary of the birthday of the Queen was celebrated yesterday and to-day in royal style. The weather was propitious, and with the exception of a few hours on Friday, when the sky looked threatening and a few drops of rain fell, both days were clear, bright and temperate, in fact such weather as can alone be witnessed in Victoria. The city was en fete. Business was suspended, flags were thrown to the breeze and a liberal amount of decorations, (there might have been more), testified that our citizens had, according to their custom on festal occasions, entered fully into the spirit of the hour and were determined to make the most of it. The steamers from the Sound, from Vancouver and New Westminster, for two days previous, were taxed to their utmost capacity and very many were left behind. The hotels and boarding houses were crowded and private houses were called upon to provide accommodation for the strangers. At an early hour the crowds began streaming towards Beacon Hill, where the athletic games were to take place in the forenoon, and between 11 and 12 the grounds were alive with people.

AT BEACON HILL.

The Most Exciting Game Ever Played on Beacon Hill.

This baseball match between the Amities and Port Townsends attracted fully 3,000 people, and was an interesting game from beginning to end. The Amities won the toss and decided to send the Townsends to the bat. Renfrew was the first striker for the visitors and was run out on second base by Gus Gowen. Ellston was struck out and Boynton was thrown out on first by Borthwick. Runs 0.

First innings, Amities—Burns and Gus Gowen made first on base hits, while Burnes scored on an error by Sisley, Gus Gowen and Geo. Gowen reached the home plate on an error by Brackin; Duck was put out on third; C. N. Gowen reached second and third; Borthwick was caught out by Boynton and Gus Gowan was put out on third.—Runs 3.

Second innings, Townsends—Lange and Riderback reached first on base hits; Lange tallied on a wild throw to third from Borthwick; Bracken was struck out; Sisley out on first; Busby out on first on a good play by C. W. and Gus Gowan. Runs 1.

Second innings, Amities—Jackson made first on an error by Sisley and reached home on a passed ball; Hannon struck out; Baker made first on an error by Sisley; Burnes went to first on a safe hit; Gus Gowen out on strikes; Geo. Gowen out on first. Runs 1.

Third innings, Townsends—Renfren reached first on a base hit and was run out by Gus Gowen; Pendergast made first on balls; Ellston struck out; Pendergast out on third by Borthwick and Jackson. Runs 0.

Third innings, Amities—Duck made first on a base hit; stole second; C. N. Gowen struck out; Jackson out on strikes, leaving Duck on second. Runs 0

Fourth innings, Townsends—Boynton out on the home plate; he struck the ball in the right field and was almost on the home plate when he was declared out on a good throw from Geo. Gowen to Borthwick; Lange reached first on balls; stole second; Riderbach made first on an error by C. N. Gowen; Bracken was struck by pitcher; Lange out on a double play by Baker and Borthwick; Sisley reached first on a safe hit; Riderback tallied on an error by C. N. Gowen; Bracken tallied on balls on which Renfrew took first; Pendergast out on strikes, leaving three men on bases. Runs 2.

Fourth innings, Amities.—Hannon out on first; Baker reached first on an error by Pendergast; Burnes first on a safe hit; Baker scored; Gus Gowen out on first; Geo. Gowen made first on a safe hit; Burnes reached home; Geo. Gowen stole second and third; Duck out, leaving Geo. Gowen on third. Runs 2.

Fifth innings, Townsends.—Ellston and Boyton, first on balls; Jackson made a splendid double play which placed Ellston and Boynton hors de combat; Lange stole third; Riderbach first on balls; Lange and Riderbach reached the home plate on errors by Jackson and C. N. Gowen; Bracken out on third. Runs 2.

Fifth innings, Amities.—C. N. Gowen struck out; Borthwick out on strikes; Jackson made a safe base hit; Hannon out on first. Runs 0.

Sixth innings, Townsends—Busby made first on an error by Geo Gowen; Bracken first on a safe hit; Renfrew out on strikes; Pendergast out on strikes; Ellston out on a good play by Jackson, leaving Busby on second and Boynton on third. Runs 0.

Sixth innings, Amities.—Baker out on third by Boynton and Renfrew; Sisley made splendid fly catch in the field which was struck by Geo. Gowen; Gus Gowen and Barnes came home on a two-bagger by Duck; C. N. Gowen out on strikes. Runs 2.

Seventh innings, Townsends.—Boynton struck out by Jackson; Lange out on a splendid fly catch by Jackson; Riderbach struck out by Jackson. Runs 0.

Seventh innings, Amities—Borthwick out on first; Jackson made a safe base hit; Hannon struck out; Baker out on first; Jackson out on third. Runs 0.

Eighth innings, Townsends.—Bracken caught out by C. N. Gowen; Sisley sent to first on a struck ball; Busby made a base hit; Sisley scored on a blocked ball; Renfren struck out by Jackson; Pendergast reached first on an error by Geo. Gowen; Ellston struck out. Runs 1.

Eighth innings, Amities.—Burnes out on first by Pendergest; Gus Gowan takes first base on balls; out on second on a good play by Lange to Ellston; Geo. Gowan takes second on a base hit; Duck out on first on a good play by Renfren and Pendergast. Runs 0.

Ninth innings, Townsend.—Boynton reached first on a muffed ball by Geo. Gowen; Lange out on first; the best play of the day was made by Hannan and caught in one hand by Geo. Gowen on first base; Riderbach out on a fly to C. N. Gowen which was well caught; Bracken reached first on balls; Boynton tallied on a base hit by Sisley; Busby went to first on a safe base hit; Renfren made first; Bracken scored; Sisley followed to the home plate. The umpire decided that Sisley should return to third base. The score stood even and excitement was intense at this stage of the game. Sisley reached home on a blocked ball. Runs 3.

Ninth innings, Amities.—C. N. Gowen out on strikes; Borthwick reaches first on an error by the pitcher; Borthwick steals second and makes third on a blocked ball; Jackson declared out on strikes; Borthwick scored on a three-bagger by Hannon; Hannon out on third. Runs 1.

The nines decided to play another innings to decide which team would hold the championship. The Townsend went to the bat and went out in one, two, three order. The Amities sent Baker to the bat and he was declared out on first base. Burnes took first base on a safe hit; Gus Gowen reached first on balls and remained there until Hannan sent a three-bagger to left field bringing in Burnes and Gus Gowen. The match was thus won by the Amities and the large crowd of people gave three cheers for the favorites.

The following is the score:

John T. Fee and Manager Lange, scorers.

NOTES.

F. Jackson played remarkably well on third base and struck out a number when he replaced Baker in the box. George Gowen made a brilliant catch on first base and played a good all round game. Baker, the pitcher for the Amities, played his usual good game and made several runs. Duck caught a splendid ball in the right field. His batting was good. Burnes made several fine plays and was always safe to reach first base. C. N. Gowen, captain of the Amities, played well in his usual position as shortstop. Gus Gowen and J. Hannan played well in their positions. Borthwick, the catcher for the home team, played a first-class game and assisted very materially in winning the match. Riderback, Lange and Pendergast were the best players on the side of the visitors.

The absence of a band was generally remarked on Beacon Hill yesterday afternoon

T. Edwards, the impartial umpire, was commended on all sides for his fair decisions. J. T. Fee acted as scorer for the home team.

The Townsends and a majority of the spectators were not pleased with a portion of the ninth innings when members of the home team interfered with the players, but the umpire promptly decided in their favor.

The visiting team made an offer to play the Amities in Seattle for $1,000 aside.

THE CRICKET MATCH.

New Westminster C. C. vs Victoria C. C.—A Rather One-sided Game.

This match was played yesterday at Beacon Hill and resulted in a somewhat easy victory for the home team, as the visitors were unfortunately without the services of two or three of their best men. Dokrill having won the toss for New Westminster elected to go to wickets, sending in Townley and Hamber, who both played well. The only others who made any stay at the wickets was Dokrill, who hit well for 32. The fielding of the home team was by no means what it should have been, partly owing to the long grass, which made it very difficult to pick up a ball well. Mr. Pooley was well on the spot and took six wickets for sixteen runs. After lunch Clinton and Sinclair opened the batting for Victoria, Sinclair making 51 in his accustomed form. Irving came next with a well-played 34. Of the catches that were missed on both sides the less said the better.

Bicycle Race.

At 11:30 o'clock the following bicyclists were started in the two mile race for the championship gold medal: Karl Thompson, F. G. Turner, G. Keene and J. McCoy. The race was won by Karl Thompson, of Tacoma. The first mile the contestants raced close, but in the second mile Thompson took the lead and won easily in 7 minutes, 30 seconds. The second race, two miles, for local wheelmen, was started at noon with the following competitors: G. Bradbury, T. Minor and F. Simpson. The race was run by Minor with great ease in 9 minutes and 20 seconds; Bradbury won second prize.

In the evening the magnificent gold medal manufactured by Messrs. Peacock & Clayton, was presented to Mr. Thompson, the winner.

Horse Races.

The horse races at the Victoria Driving Park attracted a large number of persons. The races were only two in number, of heats, best two and three. Betting was spirited and the sport much enjoyed. The first race, a half mile and repeat, $125 to first horse, $25 to second, brought together two fleet racers, McCully and Telephone, Washington and California bred animals. The first heat was won by McCully with ease and the second heat, and race, by the same horse by a head. Telephone is a fast horse, and in both races he carried 12 pounds more than McCully. Shaw rode Telephone, while the owner's jockey rode McCully. Time of heats, 53¼ seconds and 52½ seconds respectively.

The trotting race, best two in three, brought out Jack the Ripper and Paddy Ryan, Oregon trotters, and Shaw's Dart and Fanny Irving, local trotters. The prizes were $200 for first and $50 for second. The first heat was won by Jack the Ripper by two lengths in 2:40, the second heat by Paddy Ryan by a neck in 2:30 and the third by the same horse in 2:32½ by fully three lengths. Dart and Fanny Irving were distanced.

Sailing Races.

This part of the programme was not carried out just as well as could be desired for want of a good breeze. A light wind was blowing in the morning and a start was made, but it was too slow to be exciting. The race for the smaller yachts was completed, the run over the course being made within the time limit. These started and crossed the line on the return as follows: "Wasp", sailed by Mr. Collins, started at 9:15 27, turned 10:26 52, having gone over the course in 1 h., 11 m., 25 sec.; "Teal", by Mr. Edwin Johnson, started 9:16 31, turned 10:33 31, making her time 1 h., 17 m. The "Arrow" started at 9:16 17, but made much poorer time than the other two. The big yachts started, but were becalmed, so that the race will have to be sailed over again.

AT THE GORGE.

The Regatta—Splendid Contests and Magnificent Sights.

Of the many aquatic events which have taken place at the Gorge in recent years, none have been more successful or given greater satisfaction than that which took place yesterday. With the sun obscured by a thin veil of clouds, and a light breeze blowing, the day might well be looked upon as specially designed for the occasion. Excellent means of transit from the city to the scene of the sports was provided both by land and water. The Arm too was literally alive with all kinds of pleasure crafts bearing happy parties to the great center of the afternoon's attractions. Swift racing boats shot here and there among the heavier vessels, while the pretty steam pinnaces of the navy, resting along at race-horse speed, added to the beauty and vivacity of the one great picture. At the boat houses and landings along the sides of the Arm, creditable efforts were made at decoration, especial mention being deserved by Mr. Gordon, of the Hamilton Powder, and Mr. Fred. Norris. A stringer of gay bunting traversed the Arm at the starting point of the races and added so effectively to the enlivening of the surroundings that one could not help thinking that several stringers of the same kind would be a good thing to consider on future occasions.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the first race was called by Starter Broderick. Five naval cutters pulled into line and got away well at the sound of the gun. The Swiftsure cutter (white red cross), took the lead at the start and held it to the finish. A close race ensued between three of the others, one of the Amphion crews winning second place. First prize $40, second $25.

A four-oared gig race of one mile between naval officers vs. gentleman amateurs was the next event, boats not more than twenty-two feet in length and in rigged. There were three entries, two being city crews. The race was won by several lengths by Warde's crew, composed of Ward, Drake, Crease and Beaven; naval officers second. Prize, silver cup, $25.

Five-oared whalers race one and one-half miles. There were four entries, two crews from the Icarus, one from the flagship and one from the Amphion. The white red cross of the Swiftsure again took the lead and held it, Amphion second. First prize $25, second prize $10.

The single outrigger skiffs, one and one-half miles, was a race around which a good deal of interest centered. There were four entries, Chas. Bush (blue and red), H. W. Pauline (cardinal), G. A. Richardson (pink and black), T. Watson (black). The blue and red took the lead at the start, but was overhauled by the pink and black before the end of the race. Richardson won with a good lead. Bush second, followed by Pauline. First prize $30, second $10.

For the five-oared whalers race, of one mile for boys, there were three entries from the Swiftsure, Amphion and Icarus. The white red cross (Swiftsure) again won, blue (Icarus) second. First prize $25, second $10.

Peterboro and birch bark canoes, one and one-half miles. There were three entries; Watson and Bush, Townsend and Copeland and T. B. Norgate. They won in the order named. First prize $15, second $7.50.

Canoe race, for Indians, one and one-half miles, not to exceed thirteen. There were five entries. Sasnich (white flag), Songish of Victoria (red flag), Penhilahit of the East Coast Islands (green flag), Cowichan (red flag), Fraser River (white flag). This was the prettiest event of the day. The braves got away in fine form and went into to win from the sound of the gun. Sasnich took the lead, but the old champion Songish canoe soon overhauled them and won easily, Sasnich second. First prize $5 per paddle, second $15, and $5 to winning canoe.

Four-oared dugouts (Indians). This was also a good race. There were three entries, Cowichan (red flag), Sasnich (white), and Alickson of Texada (green). There was a good deal of rivalry between the Cowichan crew, who were pure Indians, and the Alicksons, who were half castes of fine physical development. The Alicksons won, Cowichan second. First prize, $25; second, $10.

Double out-rigger skiffs, 20 feet and under, one and a half miles. There were three entries: Law brothers (dark blue and white), Franklyn and Sullivan (red and white), Pauline brothers (white), McIntosh and Carmichael (white and red). Law brothers, the old reliables, led from the start around the course; Carmichael and McIntosh second. In this race Pauline brothers claimed a foul. First prize, $30; second, $10.

Dingey race, over a short course, between Swiftsure and Icarus. Won by the white red cross. First prize, $10; second, $5.

The swimming race was well contested, the distance being about 220 yards. The following entries were made: H. B. Johnson, A. Nye, W. Paul, D. C. Patterson, G. F. Askew, John Greenfield, Cowichan "Shock," "Shock" won.

The always amusing greasy pole contest was tackled by G. F. Askew, A. Nye, P. Nye, S. Lewis (Indian), J. Fitzgerald. The Indian won this contest also.

Everything in connection with the regatta passed off without a hitch, a very large measure of the success being due to the assistance of the officers of the navy. Victoria's regattas would indeed lose much of their attraction if it were not for the good fellows of the ships. Much credit is also due to Messrs. D. W. Morrow, Supt. Roycraft and J. Seeley for the perfection of their arrangements.

NOTES.

The first bicycle race yesterday started the spectators watching the baseball game like a fire alarm.

A drunken marine rolled down the hill near the Gorge just after the regatta, and a cry of horror went up from many, thinking his neck was broken. It was not, however.

The ubiquitous vendors of the War Cry were present at the Hill with the paper for sale.

Everything approaching a vehicle or craft was pressed into use.

Mr. J. R. Tait of Whatcom chartered the bus Young America for the two days of the celebration. He ran to the race track, Beacon Hill and the Gorge, and made a pile of money. On the last trip from the Gorge the Young America carried 72 passengers, 29 being on top.

A horse belonging to the Transfer Co dropped dead near the Victoria Gardens.

A bus running to the Gorge and drawn by three horses, upset, and it was reported a lady was hurt.

It was a bad day on the horses, and many are hors de combat to-day. One of a team of hack horses was seized with a violent attack of cholera and was liberally dosed with Wizard Oil, prescribed by an amateur "vet." as a preventive specific for every ill that horseflesh is heir to. The fact that the horse is still alive proves its efficacy.

THE BALL.

A Magnificent Success—Large Attendance and Fine Display.

The first day's celebration was brought to a close with a ball in Assembly Hall, Fort street. The hall was decorated with flags of all nations, evergreens, flowers and mirrors. Around the sides of the walls of the large dancing pavillion were circles of bright swords and cutlasses, glistening in the light of hundreds of gas jets. The pretty lounges and easy chairs and carpeted dais for the band, added to the wealth of floral decoration, formed a pretty picture, which surpassed anything ever seen in Victoria. On entering the pavillion communicating with the dressing rooms, the eyes of visitors were met with a motto wrought in ivy and evergreens with the words "Welcome to All." At 9:30 o'clock a large number of ladies, with their escorts, were assembled in the building and were met at the main entrance by His Worship Mayor Grant, Chairman Joshua Davies and members of the Ball and Reception Committees. The orchestra, which was selected from the best musicians in the province, were placed on a carpeted dais in the southeast corner of the hall. The first bars of the opening polka proved that the music would be a rare treat and throughout the evening nothing but praise of their selections was heard on all sides. The musicians selected were: Professors Hermann, Loseby, Haynes, Jensen, Kauffman, Sharpe, Pferdner, Reiff, Proctor, Thompson, Campbell, Johnson, Muirhead, Ringgold and Farrar, assisted by several first-class musicians from H. M. S. Swiftsure.

Precisely at 9:30 the opening quadrille brought the merrymakers from the dressing rooms. The sight of the hundreds of beautiful ladies in their costumes with the uniforms of the officers of the army and navy was in keeping with the decorations and presented a fairy scene which will be long remembered by those who were fortunate enough to attend the anniversary ball given in honor of our beloved Queen.

NOTES.

The supper-room was provided with all the delicacies of the season and was thrown open during the entire evening.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning the grand celebration ball was brought to a close.

The Reception Committee were most assiduous in their attention to the guests. The committee consisted of Mayor Grant, E. C. Baker, M. P.; Hon. J. H. Turner, M. P. P.; ex-Mayor R. P. Rithet; Hon. F. G. Vernon, M. P. P.; T. Earle, Esq.; R. Ward, Esq.; T. R. Smith Esq.; Chief Engineer Deasy and Joshua Davies, Esq. The directors of ceremonies, Messrs. R. McIntosh, A. W. Jones, A. G. McCaddes, E. G. Prior, M. P., and J. S. Yates attended to their duties in a most commendable manner.

Two hundred ladies with their escorts were present.

Mr. Anderson, of the Clarence, with his corps of assistants, deserves great credit for the arrangements which were complete in every particular.

Visitors from the mainland and Puget Sound were loud in their praise of the committees and duly appreciated the courteous treatment received.

The ball was a success in every respect.

The Lacrosse Match.

The teams were lined up at 10:30. Vancouver placed in the field Bingham, goal; Suckling, point; J. Smith, cover point; A. Godfrey, defence; E. Murphy, 2nd defence; E. McDougall, 3rd defence; P. Wade, centre; H. Rankin, H. Quigley, home field; J. Simpson, 3rd home; D. Smith, 2nd home; W. D. Woods, home; W. S. Taylor, captain. Victoria was represented by Cullen, goal; Cambridge, point; Wade, cover point; R. Clarke, defence; Ledingham, 2nd defence; Cusack, 3rd defence; Tite, centre; C. Cullin, Cox, home field; Ray, 3rd home; Kenning, 2nd home, Springling, home. The Vancouver team was composed of much heavier men and it was thought would prove more than a match for their lighter opponents. The play commenced. The ball many times came in dangerous proximity to the Vancouver goal and sometimes the Victorians were also pushed hard. Both teams played in fine form the visiting team showing every evidence of heavy practice. Vancouver won the first goal in 27 minutes.

After a close and exciting play of five minutes Victoria won the second goal.

Vancouver won by two goals to one, time of third 20 minutes. After half an hour's play time was called.

Incoming Passengers.

San Francisco, May 25.—Sailed—Steamer Walla Walla for Victoria with the following passengers: Mrs. E. Booth, J. C. Thorne, Jas. Booth and wife, Mrs. J. C. Clark, Miss Bale, B. Lawton, Mrs. F. J. Hatton, S. E. Vignolo, C. Wingend, Mrs. A. B. Bennett and A. McKay.

Sad Death.

Mrs. Patterson, wife of the Rev. G. C. Patterson, a Presbyterian clergyman who lately returned from this Province to Kingston, Ont., died last week at that city, leaving an infant three weeks old. The friends of the Rev. Mr. Patterson, in this city, where he was known to many, will sincerely sympathize with him in his bereavement.

During a thunder storm at Sundridge, Ont., a son of Thos. Smart, aged 3, was struck and instantly killed by lightning. The bolt came down the chimney near which the boy was standing and passed down in the cellar. Mrs. Smart was also affected by the shock, but received no severe injuries.

San Francisco, May 25.—The origin of the fire which destroyed the Greek Russian church last Tuesday has just been discovered. It was caused by lighted cigarette stumps which were thrown among the decorations by some sailors of the Russian corvette Kreyser who had visited the edifice.

VESSEL LOST.

Delaware Breakwater, May 25.—The Norwegian bark Patriot, from Barbadoes for Philadelphia, has been wrecked here and is a total loss. Vessel and cargo are valued at a hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

A GOOD STORY SPOILED.

Omaha, May 25.—Byron Reid, one of the oldest and wealthiest real estate men in this city, when shown a dispatch from Tacoma, Washington Territory, stating that Robert Shields had won the suit against the old Omaha townsite company in the Supreme Court, giving him $22,000,000 damages on account of the company gobbling up his lands on the banks of the Missouri river, said that the thing was utterly without foundation. Reid further states that there never was such a case as Robert Shields against the old Omaha townsite company, although Shields was a party defendant in an action some twenty years ago and the court decided the case against all of them.

PHELPS CAN HAVE IT.

Washington, May 25.—If ex-congressman William Walter Phelps, of New Jersey, desires the mission to Berlin his friends say he can have it. Phelps stands very highly with Blaine and President Harrison, and he would undoubtedly make one of the most gifted diplomats ever sent abroad. It is stated in official circles, however, that he does not desire any place in the foreign service. It may be if the place is pressed upon him that he will accept.

COURTNEY FINDS A BODY.

Ithaca, N. Y., May 25.—This morning while coxman C. E. Courtney was coaching the Cornell crew, he discovered a body in the mud at the foot of Cayuga inlet. The body discovered proved to be Willie Seitz, aged 9, missing since Wednesday. This makes the third body found by Courtney.

DR. CRONIN'S MURDER.

Chicago, May 25.—A sensational and probably important clew in the Cronin mystery has been brought to light in the discovery that Major Sheppard, the notorious pickpocket, was once offered $100 to kill Dr. Cronin. Simpson's family had been treated by Dr. Cronin and he divulged the plot to him. Cronin detailed these facts to T. T. Conklin, with whom he lived, and has always insisted that a plot existed to assassinate him. Simpson was seen on Tuesday wearing diamonds and showing a large roll of money. He has since disappeared and is reported to have gone to Canada.

John Cronin, brother of Dr. Cronin, arrived from Arkansas this afternoon and he positively identified the body as that of his brother.

Alexander Sullivan to-day again denied vigorously the charges of some of Cronin's friends, that he knows something of the money shortages vaguely referred to as the beginning of the trouble which led to Cronin's murder. An attempt may be made to arrest the man Long, who met the "fake" interview from Toronto, purporting to be with Cronin. It is said by Cronin's friends that his action was inspired and that he might divulge important information.

DEATH OF A LITERATEUR.

Newport, R. I., May 25.—George H. Calvert, one of Newport's most distinguished citizens, died to-day, aged 87. He was a lineal descendant of Lord Baltimore, and was widely known as an author of prose and poetical works. He was born in Maryland in 1802, but has resided here for many years. He was one of Goethe's most devoted disciples, and years ago visited that great man. Calvert was regarded as the greatest Shakespearean scholar of the country, and his works have been many and able. He and Bancroft have been friends for many years. Bancroft was present when Calvert died.

TO INFLUENCE HAYTI.

Washington, May 25.—The State and Navy Departments officials continue to deny the story about three American commissioners to go on the U. S. steamship Boston to Hayti to bring about a settlement of the revolution there, and to establish coaling stations. First Assistant Secretary Wharton was shown the statement in the morning paper, giving the above story and naming General L. W. Wallace and ex-Governor Packard, of Louisiana, as two of the three commissioners. He said it was all news to him. Secretary Blaine was at the cabinet meeting and could not be seen. His son, Walker Blaine, was seen, but said he could say nothing of the matter. His manner indicated there might be truth in the story, and he seemed anxious to find out who gave the statement.

LINCOLN WELCOMED.

London, May 25.—Lincoln, the American minister, was presented to-day to the Queen at Windsor Castle, by Viscount Cross. Lincoln presented his credentials to the Queen, who read them and cordially greeted Lincoln with a few kind remarks.

EMBEZZLEMENT.

Boston, May 25.—A report comes from New Haven this morning that cashier Bradley, of the Merchants' Bank at that place, was arrested on a charge of embezzlement of between $50,000 and $60,000.

A COURTMARTIAL.

Washington, May 25.—A naval general court martial will meet at Mare Island on June 3rd with Commodore John Irwin as president, for the trial of Passed Assistant Engineer Frank J. Hoffman, accused of absenting himself without leave when the Charleston had a dock trial at San Francisco last month. Engineer Hoffman said he was to be absent for only one day, but he did not reappear for three or four days.

Washington, May 25.—General Felix Angus, proprietor of the Baltimore American has been mentioned for the German Mission, but it is argued that since he is a native Frenchman, he would not be acceptable to the Emperor and Bismarck. The name of General Angus is yet mentioned in connection with the mission to St. Petersburg. Col. Elliott F. Shepherd, proprietor of the New York Mail and Express, may be tendered either the Berlin or St. Petersburg Mission.

BRIGHT'S WILL.

London, May 25.—John Bright's will was sworn to to-day. It bequeaths an estate of about $2,000 to his children. There are no public bequests.

FOR HIGH TREASON.

London, May 25.—The German authorities in Alsace-Lorraine have arrested a wealthy and respectable French resident on a charge of high treason.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH OF MAY

The twenty-fourth of May, the natal day of England's Queen, has come and gone, and right royally was the occasion observed by her namesake, the city of Victoria. To those who are inclined to attach importance to anniversaries of this character, there are two ways of looking at them, either retrospectively or prospectively. We prefer to glance ahead. A reign like VICTORIA'S so fraught with events of which not England alone but the world has profited, while presenting a background which invites review, so stimulates the imagination, that we find ourselves wondering what the forthcoming years will bring forth; what, in fact, is to be the destiny of the English people? Presuming that progress for the next fifty years will advance with the celerity which has characterized the half century of Victoria's reign, English influences will dominate throughout the world. Such alien people as shall seek the protection of the English flag will have been assimilated largely, and in localities where now the barbarian reigns supreme, Englishmen, and the genius of their institutions, will be the leveling features. We have thought that, perhaps, Englishmen, fired at the prospect of a nationality comprehending the greater portion of the universe, and beside which the grandest empire of the past would afford no parallel, would conclude that Imperial Federation was a consummation inseparable from the attainment of such an end. It is not likely, however, that this will ever be more than an idea. Politics, if the expression may be used, has its geographical limitations. A policy which may be eminently adapted for one locality almost invariably requires modification to be adopted for another, and hence we must infer that unequivocal allegiance to a given political fountainhead, is impracticable not only, but undesirable. There is no reason, however, why as directing the moral and intellectual bent, England should not be to her widely scattered children as was Athens to Rome. Such has already been the case to a remarkable degree, and basing our calculations for the future on results already apparent, we are entitled to presume that the genius of English institutions will eventually everywhere prevail. If those who are inclined to carp shall say what has a monarch to do with the shaping of a nation's destiny where policy is regulated by popular sovereignty, we make answer that there is an involuntary potentiality incident to royalty which makes itself felt, either for good or bad. Queen VICTORIA has been an influence for good. As a queen who has accepted without murmur legislation tending if anything to lessen prerogatives, her example is without parallel, and unquestionably has forced other monarchs to relax their grip on arbitrary power. As a wife and mother she affords an instance which may be equalled but never excelled, and it is impossible to spicifically measure the salutary effect of this involuntary influence. If, as it is alleged, man is essentially imitative, we can scarcely overestimate the influence for good resultant from a life so singularly pure as that of England's Queen. The most irreverent people on earth as relating to the divine right of kings—the Americans—concede the palm of womanhood to her, and along with us on the occasion of her natal day exclaim "God bless Queen VICTORIA."

DEPEW AND TOWNE.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW, the Centennial orator, and the Rev. Dr. TOWNE have fallen out over the matter of a dollar or two. Mr. DEPEW if seems employed Dr. TOWNE to ransack American history to gather data to be assimilated for the Centennial oration. The data was not supplied in time and of course not used, Mr. DEPEW being compelled to make his own researches in the odd spells of three days. The trouble with the Rev. Mr. TOWNE is that he is vain to a superlative degree. He fancied that because DEPEW asked him to furnish abstracts that he was also required to furnish ideas, or in other words, that he was to furnish DEPEW with a speech, a responsibility which impelled him to delay forwarding it to DEPEW until the last minute, and in the meantime DEPEW, tired of waiting, had composed the oration himself. Naturally the hundred dollars which the reverend gentleman has received for his pains is poor salve for his wounded vanity, and in an interview on the subject he observed that his "old classmate" (DEPEW) stood nowhere near the head of his class. The New York World thus comments on this statement: If Mr. DEPEW had stood near that he of his class, it book-worm delving for material for other men's use, or a pedagogue of some degree. It is the power swiftly to absorb and deftly to use knowledge which makes the successful man. It is not "talk" but work which has placed Mr. DEPEW at the head of one of the greatest railways in the Union. And if he has "talked his way" into the affectionate admiration of his fellow citizens it is a gift for which they all thank the fairy godmother who smiled above his cradle.

PRIMEVAL AMERICANS.

Under the above caption the New York Herald relates that on White Island, a suburb of Tonawanda, men engaged in excavating a cellar dug up eleven very peculiar skeletons. The skeletons found were lying in a case of cobbled stones in which the bodies had originally been buried. They were evidently of much greater antiquity than the mound above, for a comparison of one of the skulls with a cast of the famous Neanderthal skull shows them to be of an even lower order of intellect. The arch of the eyes is on a level with the top of the head and there is no forehead whatever. Mr. DUSCHAK, of the Buffalo Academy of Natural Science, to which the remains have been presented, says that it is the most peculiar skull ever found and will completely upset the established scientific theories in regard to the intelligence of the primeval American. The being to whom the skull belonged could not have differed greatly from an ape, either in appearance or intellect. The accompanying thigh bones were abnormally long and very slender, and there are thirteen ribs on a side. The shoulder blades are entirely lacking. Many of the society think that the long expected "missing link" has at last been found.

THE KNIGHTS OF HONOR.

As it seems to be true that neither prohibition nor Good Templarism, nor church influences, are able to overcome alcoholism, it may be that the action of the Knights of Honor, which has ordered subordinate lodges to get rid of dissipated members, and to pay no benefits to the heirs or representatives of suicides, will have a salutary effect. This is rather hard upon the innocent victims of another's depravity, but it is prudent for thrift to protect its earnings and philanthropy its purposes from the results of vice and dissipation when possible. This a beneficiary order can do to a great extent, and it is strange that all of these do not insist upon sobriety as a prime requisite for membership.

This is a step in the right direction, and we are of the opinion that it is one of the best methods which may be applied to the disciples of Bacchus. Such procedure is perfectly legitimate. Nobody can plead that it is an infringement on individual rights, and should the practice become general among societies and business men, it will be discerned that drunkenness will fall away to the lowest minimum compatible with human imperfections. The Knights of Honor have done well to eliminate dissipated members from their midst.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In a sanitarium at Tarrytown, N. Y., is a petrified prehistoric lizard, 11 feet and 1 inch long, 18 inches broad at the shoulders and nine inches at the head, and weighing 300 pounds. Its color is gray and its substance sandstone. The specimen, which is almost perfect, was exhumed on the shore of Charlestown Lake, five miles from Farmersville, Ontario, in July last.

A motion in favor of the disestablishment of the church in Wales was rejected in the British House of Commons Wednesday evening by a vote of 284 to 231. The advocates of disestablishment are fast gaining strength and their day of victory is not far off. Mr. Gladstone has agreed to make church disestablishment in Wales a plank in the platform of the Liberal party.

The Toronto Telegram, referring to the election of Mr. Rufus Pope, son of the late Minister of Railways, observes that the "son of his father" business is getting altogether too prevalent in Canadian politics. The Telegram thinks that "sons ought to climb upon a ladder of their own merits if seats in the Canadian Parliament are not to rank as family heirlooms."

The influence of the modern press on the manners and lives of the people, and the power of advertising, as well, was exemplified by Mr. Goschen's latest budget speech to the English House of Commons. Referring to coffee and tea, he said the importations in these had fallen off a good deal, which was due to the dealers in cocoa advertising their business and thus increasing the consumption of that article.

Toryism in England is being driven to terrible straits. When the Bristol-Salisbury Club entertained Lord Salisbury at luncheon they had painted upon the menu cards a coarse caricature of Mr. Gladstone and other Liberal leaders, most of whom were depicted as waiters bringing up the dishes. In private life this conduct would be paralleled by a man who, instead of shooting his enemy or punching his head, made faces at him or tried to stick pins in his leg.

They are sometimes a little slow about punishing people for murders in the United States, but when it comes to cigarette smoking, the arm of justice is not stayed. A negro boy in Kansas was smoking a cigarette. A policeman asked him where he got it, as the laws of the State prohibit the sale of cigarettes to minors. Not receiving a satisfactory answer, the policeman shot the boy dead. On a cursory view of the case, it appears to us what Kansas wants is a law preventing the sale of pistols to policemen.

One of the curiosities of English law was shown in the prosecution of Mr. Harrison for assisting Irisheod. The food was pushed under the door, and on the strength of this act, Mr. Harrison was arrested for housebreaking.

An old safe in the British Legation at Tokio, neglected for many years because the key was lost, was forced open recently, and among its contents were found the medals of gold and silver sent by the British Government twenty-six years before for presentation to those natives who had assisted in the defence of the British Legation against an attack made upon it by a mob in 1861. An attempt will be made to present the medals now, but most of the men for whom they were intended are dead or can not be found.

The reason alleged for the hesitancy on the part of British capitalists to invest their money in the new line of fast steamships, for which the British and Canadian Governments are offering so liberal subsidies, is very suggestive, if it be the real one. It is said that, observing the rapidity with which changes and improvements are made in ocean vessels, they fear lest some new discovery or invention may, in a few years, so revolutionize the business as to render their ships, built at vast expense, practically valueless. There is unquestionably room for the fear. There is no more reason for supposing that the seventeen or twenty knot ocean greyhound of to-day marks the limit of possible achievement in ocean travel, than there would have been for resting in the same conclusion with regard to the vessels of twenty or fifty years ago. But it will be a curious development should it prove that invention has at length reached such a rate of progress that it tends to discourage and paralyze, rather than, as heretofore, stimulate enterprise. Such caution on the part of shrewd investors is, also, not without warning for Governments, such as those of England and the United States, which are about to embark in navy building on an enormous scale.

A new thing in modern ecclesiasticism is the action of an Episcopal clergyman in Missouri who has been deposed from the ministry at his own request. "He found," says an exchange, "after years of experience that he could not believe, and therefore could not honestly preach, the doctrines to which he had given adhesion; therefore he takes the manly way of making the request that he be deposed at once and forever from the ministry." His course in the matter is warmly applauded as in favorable contrast with that of such men as Professor Smyth, Dr. Thomas, Professor Swing, and others, who have stood trials for heresy when they had ceased to believe the doctrines of their churches, as popularly conceived. The public will, no doubt, generally pronounce the action of Rev. Mr. Bray, the clergyman referred to, the braver and more honest. Perhaps in this, as in many other cases, the popular view is the right one. But is it, after all, quite so clear? Unless the churches are infallible, and the creeds perfect, there must be room for reform. Reform must usually come, if it comes at all, from within, not from without, an organization. Admit that a clergyman is in honor bound to leave a church the moment his investigations lead him to deviate by a hair's breadth from the old ways of thought and belief, and what chance of reform remains? There are evidently two sides even to this question.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—The Oklahoma bubble bursted, and the boomers bursted with the bubble; but the walking is good, and those who went in light will be able to get away.

—The best form in which electricity is embodied is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, a sovereign and highly sanctioned specific for rheumatic pains, and a thoroughly reliable remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs, used externally and internally.

—A Frenchman has published a book devoted to oranges and the variety of desserts they make.

—Mrs. E. H. Perkins, Creek Center, Warren Co., N. Y., writes: "She has been troubled with Asthma for four years, had to sit up night after night with it. She has taken two bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and is perfectly cured. She strongly recommends it, and wishes to act as agent among her neighbors."

—Yet a little while and the early green apple will cause the small boy to be an acrobat.

—A COMPLETE REVOLUTION in the state of the stomach harassed by Dyspepsia is caused by using Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, or great blood purifier, a medicine specially adapted to renew healthful activity in that organ and in those which most closely co-operate with it, the bowels and the liver. Easy digestion, and increase of appetite and a free secretion of bile, mark the radical change which it produces.

—Divorced women appear to have as many fascinations as widows.

—Mr. W. Whayer, Wright., P. Q., had Dyspepsia for twenty years. Tried many remedies and doctors, but got no relief. His appetite was very poor, had a distressing pain in his side and stomach, and gradual wasting away of flesh, when he heard of, and immediately commenced taking, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. The pains have left and he rejoices in the enjoyment of excellent health, in fact he is quite a new man.

—A "rainbow festival" is quite practical and not at all visionary.

"He pills as thick as hand grenades flew,
And where they fell as certainly slew."

was said of one of those ignorant doctors in the early times, who might well have been called the side-de-camp of death. The sufferer from scrofula, with sores as bad as Job's, need not now curse the day he was born, for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will restore health and beauty, appetite and strength. Especially has it manifested its potency in curing salt-rheum, tetter, boils, carbuncles, sore eyes, scrofulous sores and swellings, hip joint diseases, white swellings, goitre or thick neck, or enlarged glands.

AYER'S Sugar-Coated Cathartic PILLS.

If the Liver becomes torpid, the bowels are constipated, or if the stomach fails to perform its functions properly, use Ayer's Pills. They are invaluable.

For some years I was a victim to Liver Complaint, in consequence of which I suffered from General Debility and Indigestion. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills restored me to perfect health.—W. T. Brightney, Henderson, W. Va.

For years I have relied more upon Ayer's Pills than anything else, to my bowels. These Pills are mild in action, and do their work thoroughly. I have used them, with good effect, in cases of Rheumatism and Dyspepsia.—G. F. Miller, Attleborough, Mass.

Ayer's Pills cured me of Stomach and Liver troubles, from which I had suffered for years. I consider them the best pills made, and would not be without them.—Morris Gates, Dowsaville, N. Y.

I was attacked with Bilious Fever, which was followed by Jaundice, and was so dangerously ill that my friends despaired of my recovery. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and soon regained my customary strength and vigor.—John C. Pattison, Lowell, Nebraska.

Last spring I suffered greatly from a troublesome humor on my side. In spite of every effort to cure this eruption, it increased until the flesh became entirely raw. I was troubled, at the same time, with Indigestion, and distressing pains in

The Bowels.

By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. In a short time I was free from pain, my food digested properly, the sores on my body commenced healing, and, in less than one month, I was cured.—Samuel D. White, Atlanta, Ga.

I have long used Ayer's Pills, in my family, and believe them to be the best pills made.—S. C. Darden, Darden, Miss.

My wife and little girl were taken with Dysentery a few days ago, and I at once began giving them small doses of Ayer's Pills, thinking I would call a doctor if the disease became any worse. In a short time the bloody discharges stopped, all pain went away, and health was restored.—Theodore Ealing, Richmond, Va. ††

NEW SPRINGS OF JOY.

SERMON PREACHED BY DR. TALMAGE ON SUNDAY, MAY 19.

As Caleb, the Father, Gave Achsah a Desirable Land to Live in, So God Has Given Man This World, a Goodly Home in Which to Dwell.

BROOKLYN, May 19.—The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., preached today on "New Springs of Joy." The text was: "Thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs."—Joshua xv, 19.

The city of Debir was the Boston of antiquity—a great place for brain and books. Caleb wanted it, and he offered his daughter Achsah as a prize to any one who would capture that city. It was a strange thing for Caleb to do, and yet the man that could take the city would have, at any rate, two elements of manhood—bravery and patriotism. With Caleb's daughter as a prize to fight for, General Othniel rode into the battle. The gates of Debir were thundered into the dust, and the city of books lay at the feet of the conqueror. The work done, Othniel comes back to claim his bride. Having conquered the city, it is no great job for him to conquer the girl's heart; for however faint hearted a woman herself may be, she always loves courage in a man. I never saw an exception to that. The wedding festivity having gone by, Othniel and Achsah are about to go to their new home. However loudly the cymbals may clash and the laughter ring, parents are always sad when a fondly cherished daughter goes off to stay; and Achsah, the daughter of Caleb, knows that now is the time to ask almost anything she wants of her father. It seems that Caleb, the good old man, had given as a wedding present to his daughter a piece of land that was mountainous, and sloping southward toward the deserts of Arabia, swept with some very hot winds. It was called "a south land." But Achsah wants an addition of property; she wants a piece of land that is well watered and fertile. Now it is no wonder that Caleb, standing amidst the bridal party, his eyes so full of tears because she was going away that he could hardly see her at all, gives her more than she asks. She said to him: "Thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs."

GOD HAS GIVEN US THE WORLD.

What a suggestive passage! The fact is, that as Caleb, the father, gave Achsah, the daughter, a south land, so God gives to us his world. I am very thankful he has given it to us. But I am like Achsah in the fact that I want a larger portion. Trees, and flowers, and grass, and blue skies are very well in their places; but he who has nothing but this world for a portion has no portion at all. It is a mountainous land, sloping off toward the desert of sorrow, swept by fiery sirocco; it is "a south land," a poor portion for any man that tries to put his trust in it. What has been your experience? What has been the experience of every man, of every woman, that has tried this world for a portion? Queen Elizabeth, amidst the surroundings of pomp, is unhappy because, the painter sketches too minutely the wrinkles on her face, and she indignantly cries out, "You must strike off my likeness without any shadows." Hogarth, at the very height of his artistic triumph, is stung almost to death with chagrin because the painting he had dedicated to the king does not seem to be acceptable, for George II cries out: "Who is this Hogarth? Take his trumpery out of my presence." Brinsley Sheridan thrilled the earth with eloquence, but had for his last words, "I am absolutely undone." Walter Scott, fumbling around the inkstand, trying to write, says to his daughter: "Oh, take me back to my room; there is no rest for Sir Walter but in the grave." Stephen Girard, the wealthiest man in his day, or, at any rate, only second in wealth, says: "I live the life of a galley slave; when I arise in the morning my one effort is to work so hard that I can sleep when it gets to be night." Charles Lamb, applauded of all the world, in the very midst of his literary triumph, says: "Do you remember, Bridget, when we used to laugh from the shilling gallery of the play? There are now no good plays to laugh at from the boxes." But why go so far as that? I need to go no further than your street to find an illustration of what I am saying.

WORLDINGS ARE NOT REALLY HAPPY.

Pick me out the successful worldlings—without any religion, and you know what I mean by thoroughly successful worldlings—pick me out ten successful worldlings, and you cannot find more than one that looks happy. Care drags him across the bridge; care drags him back. Take your stand at 2 o'clock at the corner of Nassau and Wall streets, or at the corner of Canal street and Broadway, and see the agonized physiognomies. Your bankers, your insurance men, your importers, your wholesalers and your retailers, as a class—as a class, are they happy? No. Care dogs their steps; and, making no appeal to God for help or comfort, they are tossed everywhither. Hear what I have been with you, my hearer! Are you more contented in the house of fourteen rooms than you were in the two rooms you had in a house when you started? Have you not had more care and worriment since you won that fifty thousand dollars than you did before? Some of the poorest men I have ever known have been those of great fortune. A man of small means may be put in great business straits, but the ghastliest of all embarrassments is that of the man who has large estates. The men who commit suicide because of monetary losses are those who cannot bear the burden any more, because they have only a hundred thousand dollars left.

On Bowling Green, New York, there is a house where Talleyrand used to go. He was a favorite man. All the world knew him, and he had wealth almost unlimited; yet at the close of his life he says: "Behold, eighty-three years have passed without any practical result, save fatigue of body and fatigue of mind, great discouragement for the future and great disgust for the past." Oh! my friends, this is "a south land," and it slopes off toward deserts of sorrows; and the prayer which Achsah made to her father Caleb, we make this day to our Father God: "Thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs."

GOD HAS GIVEN US THE WORLD.

Blessed be God, We have more advantages given us than we can really appreciate. We have spiritual blessings offered us in this world which I shall call the nether springs, and glories in the world to come which I shall call the upper springs.

THE PURE JOY OF RELIGION.

Where shall I find words enough threaded with light to set forth the pleasure of religion? David, unable to describe it in words, played it on a harp. Mrs. Hemans, not finding enough power in prose, sings that praise in a canto. Christopher Wren, unable to describe it in language, sprung it into the arches of St. Paul's. John Bunyan, unable to present it in ordinary phraseology, takes all the fascination of allegory. Handel, with ordinary music unable to reach the height of the theme, rouses it up in an oratorio. Oh, there is no life on earth so happy as a really Christian life! I do not mean a sham Christian life, but a real Christian life. Where there is a thorn, there is a whole garland of roses. Where there is one groan, there are three doxologies. Where there is one day of cloud, there is a whole season of sunshine. Take the humblest Christian man that you know—angels of God canopy him with their white wings; the lightnings of heaven are his armed allies; the Lord is his shepherd, picking out for him green pastures by still waters; if he walk forth, heaven is his body guard; if he lie down to step, ladders of light, angel blossoming, are let into his dreams; if he be thirsty, the potentates of heaven are his cup bearers; if he sit down to food, his plain table blooms into the king's banquet. Mendacity: "Look at that old fellow with the worn out coat," the angels of God cry: "Lift up your heads, ye everlasting gates, and let him come in!" Fastidious people cry: "Get off my front steps," the doorkeepers of heaven cry: "Come, you blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom!" When he comes to die, though he may be carried out in a pine box to the potter's field, to that potter's field the chariots of Christ will come down, and the cavalcade will crowd all the boulevards of heaven.

IT MAKES A MAN "ALL RIGHT."

I bless Christ for the present satisfaction of religion. It makes a man all right with reference to the past; it makes a man all right with reference to the future. So, then, neither springs of comfort! They are perennial. The foundation of God standeth sure having this seal, "The Lord knoweth them that are his." "The mountains shall depart and the hills be removed, but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord, who hath mercy upon thee." Oh, cluster of diamonds set in burnished gold! Oh, nether springs of comfort bursting through all the valleys of trial and tribulation! When you see you of the world what satisfaction there is on earth in religion, do you not think after it as the daughter of Caleb thirsted after the water springs? It is no stagnant pond, scummed over with malaria, but springs of water leaping from the Rock of Ages! Take up one cup of that spring water and across the top of the chalice will float the delicate shadows of the heavenly wall; the yellow of jasper, the green of emerald, the blue of sardonyx, the fire of jacinth.

HAPPY IN LIFE AND GLAD IN DEATH.

I wish I could make you understand the joy religion is to some of us. It makes a man happy while he lives and glad when he dies. With two feet upon a chair and bursting with dropsies, I heard an old man in the poorhouse cry out: "Bless the Lord, oh my soul!" I looked around and said: "What has this man got to thank God for?" It makes the lame man to leap as a hart and the dumb sing. They say that the old Puritan religion is a joyless and joyless religion; but I remember reading of Dr. Goodwin, the celebrated Puritan, who in his last moments said: "Is this dying? Why, my low abides in strength! I am swallowed up in God!" "Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace." Oh, you who have been trying to satisfy yourselves with the "south land" of this world, do you not feel that you would, this morning, like to have access to the nether springs of spiritual comfort? Would you not like to have Jesus Christ bend over your cradle and bless your table and heal your wounds, and strew flowers of consolation all up and down the graves of your dead?

'Tis religion that can give
Sweetest pleasures while we live;
'Tis religion can supply
Sweetest comfort when we die.

But I have something better to tell you, suggested by this text. It seems that old Father Caleb on the wedding day of his daughter wanted to make her just as happy as possible. Though Othniel was taking her away, and his heart was almost broken because she was going, yet he gives her a "south land;" not only that, but the nether springs; not only that, but the upper springs. O God! my Father, I think thou hast given me a "south land" in this world, and the nether springs of spiritual comfort in this world; but, more than all, I think thou for the upper springs in heaven.

THE GLORIES OF HEAVEN.

It is very fortunate we cannot see heaven until we get into it. Oh, Christian man, if you could see what a place it is, we would never get you back again to the office or store or shop, and the duties you ought to perform would go neglected. I am glad I shall not see that world until I enter it. Suppose we were allowed to go on an excursion into that good land with the idea of returning. When we got there and heard the song and looked at their raptured faces and mingled in the supernal society, we would cry out: "Let us stay! We are coming here anyhow. Why take the trouble of going back again to that old world? We are here now; let us stay. And it would take angelic violence to put us out of that world, if once we got there. But as people who cannot afford to pay for an entertainment sometimes come around it and look through the door ajar, or through the openings in the fence, so we come and look through the crevices into that good land which God has provided for us. We can just catch a glimpse of it. We come near enough to hear the rumbling of the eternal orchestra, though not near enough to know who blows the cornet or who fingers the harp. My soul spreads out both wings and claps them in triumph at the thought of those upper springs. One of them breaks from beneath the throne; another breaks forth from beneath the altar of the temple; another at the door of "the house of many mansions." Upper springs of gladness! Upper springs of light! Upper springs of love! It is no fancy of mine. "The Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall lead them to living fountains of water." Oh, Saviour divine, roll in upon our souls one of those anticipated raptures! Pour around the roots of the parched tongue one drop of that liquid life! Toss before our vision those fountains of God, rainbowed with eternal victory. Hear it. They are never sick there; not so much as a headache, or twinge rheumatic, or thrust neuralgic. The inhabitant never says: "I am sick." They are never tired there. Flight to farthest world is only the play of a holiday. They never sin there. It is as easy for them to be holy as it is for us to sin. They never die there. You might go through all the outskirts of the great city and find not one place where the ground was broken for a grave. The eyesight of the redeemed is never blurred with tears. There is health in every cheek. There is spring in every foot. There is majesty on every brow. There is joy in every heart. There is hosanna on every lip. How they must pity us as they look over and look down and spur us, and say: "Poor things away down in that world!" And when some Christian is hurled into a fatal accident, they cry: "Good, he is coming!" And when we stand around the couch of some loved one (whose strength is going away) and we shake our heads forebodingly, they cry: "I am glad he is worse; he has been down there long enough. There, he is dead! Come home! Come home!" Oh, if we would only get our ideas about that future world entwisted our thoughts of transfer from here to there would be as pleasant to us as it was to a little child that was dying. She said: "Papa, when will I go home?" And he said: "Today, Florence." "Today! so soon! I am so glad."

THE DAY OF DELIVERANCE IS COMING.

I wish I could stimulate you with these thoughts, oh Christian man, to the highest possible exhilaration. The day of your deliverance is coming, is coming. It is rolling on with the shining wheels of the day and the jet wheels of the night. Every thump of the heart is only a hammer stroke striking off another chain of clay. Better scour the deck and coil the rope, the harbor is only six miles away. Jesus will come down in the "Narrows" to meet you. "Now is your salvation nearer than when you believed."

Unforgiven man, unpardoned man, will you not today make a choice between these two portions, between the "south land" of this world, which slopes to the desert, and this glorious land with the Father offers thee, running with eternal water courses? Why let your tongue be consumed with thirst when there are the nether springs and the upper springs, comfort here and glory hereafter?

DO NOT REJECT CHRIST.

Let me tell you, my dear brother, that the silliest and wickedest thing a man ever does is to reject Jesus Christ. The loss of the soul is a mistake that can never be corrected. It is a downfall that knows no alleviation; it is a ruin that is remediless; it is a sickness that has no medicament; it is a grave into which a man goes but never comes out. Therefore, putting my hand on your shoulder as one otherwise his brother (for if he be not a brother, I say this day, be ready and surrender your heart to Christ. You have been long enough serving the world; now begin to serve the Lord who bought you. You have tried long enough to carry these burdens; let Jesus Christ put his shoulder under your burden. Do I hear any one in the audience say: "I mean to attend to that after a while; it is not just the time?" It is the time, for the simple reason that you are sure of no other; and God sends you here this morning, and he sent me here to confront you with this message; and you must hear now that Christ died to save your soul, and that if you want to be saved you may be saved. "Whosoever will, let him come." You will never find any more convenient season than this. Some of your have been waiting ten, twenty, thirty, forty, fifty and sixty years. On some of you the snow has fallen. I see it on your brow, and yet you have not attended to those duties which belong to the very springtime of life. It is September with you now, it is October with you, it is December with you. I am no alarmist. I simply know this: if a man does not repent in this world he never repents at all, and that now is the accepted time, and now is the day of salvation. Oh, put off this matter no longer. Do not turn your back on Jesus Christ, who comes to save you, lest you should lose your soul.

One Monday morning a friend of mine started from New Yorkto celebrate his birthday with his daughter in Virginia. On Saturday of the same week, just after sunrise, I stood at the gate of Greenwood, waiting for her silent form to come in. It is a long journey to take in one week—from New York to Philadelphia, from Philadelphia to Baltimore, from Baltimore to Washington, from Washington to Virginia, from Virginia into the great eternity! "What thy hand findeth to do, do it."

BURNING WITH LOVES.

Some Red Hot Letters Written by Louise Balfe to Herbert Leonard.

Louise Balfe, the actress, wrote some red hot, burning letters, spilling over with love, some time ago.

She wishes she hadn't now.

She wrote the letters to George Herbert Leonard, the actor, to whom she was married in 1880.

They afterward quarreled and were separated. Leonard began suit for divorce, but Louise asked to have the decree set aside. Her motion was denied, however, when the following letters to Leonard were produced:

MY DARLING OLD PET.—Your dear letter has just reached me, and I vow I am completely overwhelmed with excitement. I wish I could kiss you, pet, and wish you good luck, but Fate is a little hard with us just now and forbids such a luxury. I feel quite convinced that you will come out here, than'k be jubilant! Oh, quite too utterly, too, too, too!

Oh, by the way, if you have not already done so, don't let on to Rhea that you are married. Single people are so much more attractive. Don't go into storms and fits about it and think I am going to flop my affections on to somebody or other. Have no fear of that. I have not seen a man in America half so good looking as your dear little self.

I am in very good health, dear, but the heat kills me. Even as I write, the perspiration is dropping off. Give my love to all at home. And now, with fondest, best and dearest love, I am your affectionate wife,

LOUISE.

You appear to think that I am only waiting for somebody to ask me to go astray, and then that I should become lost. I shall be too glad to get back to England. It was reported here that I am the daughter of the great composer, and too much was expected of me, consequently the folks were disappointed.

My poor, poor, love sick darling. I do long to see your dear face again, but it must be looking happy. Every one who has seen my boy's photo says: "What a handsome face!" Then I say, "That is my husband." I don't wear my wedding ring on the stage, dear, but you won't object to that, I know.

I don't like the New York people, although they are all stuck on my shape. I let them look and long. Where figures are concerned I take the cake, you bet, for, strange to say, in this glorious climate of New York the women are enough to keep a man single for the whole of his life.

From Toronto, Louise wrote the following:

Look here, old man, if I become dreadfully vain you will just have yourself to blame; for really the way in which you puff me up in your letters fairly makes me blush. It's very easy to write all this and call me an angel when I am away, but I notice you don't do or say such nice things when we are together.

The Cure the Worst.

The number of persons who die of snake bites in one year in India is estimated at several thousand out of a population of 200,000,000. The American "snake bite remedy" might save a great many lives in India, but the number of persons it would annually kill would greatly exceed several thousand in a population of 200,000,000.—Norristown Herald.

There will always remain something to be said of woman as long as there is one on the earth.—Bouffers.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

TAKES RISKS ON THE CASH OR MUTUAL PLANS.

As this is a Home Company, organized by British Columbians for the two-fold purpose of giving cheap insurance and keeping the money in the Province, it commends itself to the support of every insurer desiring the prosperity of this country.

In Ontario, the system of insurance, which is similar to that adopted by this Company, has been in highly successful operation for the past fifty years, and it has proved to be a great advantage to every insurer in it, by reducing the cost of insurance, and it is estimated that now three-fourths of the insurance effected in Ontario is carried by mutual companies.

Capt. Urquhart returned from Vancouver last evening on the steamer Princess Louise.

Mrs. Davies, mother of Joseph Davies, arrived in this city yesterday from Portland on a short visit. The lady was here 21 years ago and was much pleased with the appearance of Victoria since that time. Phillip Davies accompanied his mother.

T. Neunan, of Seattle, is a visitor in the city.

Tony Bost, of Tacoma, arrived on Thursday night.

Mayor Marsh and wife of Calgary, Mayor Heaury and wife of New Westminster and Mayor Oppenheimer of Vancouver are civic rulers now in the city.

Alderman Fitzgerald and wife and Ald. Grant, all of Calgary, are celebration visitors to the city.

Mayor Oppenheimer, of Vancouver, is in the city looking his best, considering deadlocks of late.

Rev. Arthur Beanlands arrived from the mainland last evening.

SPORTING NEWS.

A Team Sparring Match—Skating Race.

Clem Austin, of Vancouver, and Jim Gorman, of Toronto, donned the gloves before an audience of about two hundred at the Philharmonic hall on Thursday night. The men only contested six rounds out of ten advertised. In the six rounds expert opinion is that Gorman landed the cleanest hits, but gave up at the expiration of six rounds, claiming to be sick. The contest was accordingly decided in Austin's favor. Gorman is a "rusher," to use a fistic term, but is not endowed with a superfluity of science. The affair was considered tame. The police were present in force to prevent undue singing.

FOOT-RACE.

W. Dickson and W. Stevenson ran 100 yards at the Driving Park yesterday afternoon. The race was won by Dickson in 12 seconds.

SKATING RACE.

About one hundred and fifty people witnessed "Patsey" LeLievre skate ten miles by himself, at the rink Friday night, in a twenty-five mile race, the two other contestants, Chas. Palmer and W. Smith, dropping out at about the fifteenth mile. No official time was taken.

George Shade and Prof. Foster of Vancouver will arrange a sparring match for points for $50 a side in a few days.

Prince Wells, the champion bicycle rider, accompanied the Tacoma wheelmen and will remain a few days.

Royal Salutes.

At noon on Friday a salute of twenty-one guns was fired at O Battery barracks. The flagship Swiftsure also fired a royal salute at noon. The war vessels were also gaily decked with bunting.

Heavy Importation.

Probably the largest single item of canned goods ever arriving here from the east at one time came through last night by the Princess Louise. It comprised 1,000 cases of canned corn from Aylmer, Ont., consigned to Simon Leiser.

Oldest White Settler Dead.

Word was brought from Sitka last week to the effect that Sam Melitich, the oldest white resident of Alaska, had passed over the range at the ripe old age of 80. Mr. Melitich went to Alaska on the "Fidelity" in May, 1867.

Boating Accident.

On Friday afternoon Mr. F. Jackson, son of Dr. Jackson, fell into the bay near Sehl's factory. He was paddling a Peterboro' canoe at the time, and was lucky enough to swim to the shore with his clothes on. The young man is none the worse for his unexpected ducking.

The Defaulting Agent.

A. Leonard Meyer, the alleged defaulting Wells-Fargo agent, of Phoenix, Ariz, who gave himself into the hands of the police on Thursday states that his property at Phoenix will cover the amount. He is said to be short, and acknowledges that his affairs are not in a satisfactory state. He will waive extradition proceedings and leave on the next steamer for San Francisco to meet any charge that may be preferred against him.

Fire Drill.

In response to the ringing of the Tiger bell the fire department turned out at 7:40 o'clock this morning and drilled on the postoffice building on Government street. One of the steam fire engines was throwing two streams of water in three minutes and ten seconds after the alarm was turned in. Two streams from hydrants were also taken on the building and a remarkably good exhibition of the prompt and smooth working of the department was given.

Ice Cream Parlor.

The best Ice Cream in the city, soda water fountain with all the best and latest summer drinks on ice, including Boston Egg Soda, manufactured by the proprietor, the latest and most popular drink. Fruit Depot, fruit shipped direct from California, wholesale and retail; all kinds on hand in season. Nuts and candies of the best make fresh all the time. Tobacco, cigars and cigarettes. The best 5 cent cigar in the city. Come and try them. Don't forget the place, 3 doors south of the Post Office, 88 Government street. G. G. BIGGS, Proprietor.

The Water Supply.

Mr. Summerfield, the Water Commissioner, fears there will be a water famine this summer, should the decrease in the supply continue at the same ratio as during the past few months. The lake is now eighteen inches below high water mark, and nearly sixteen inches lower than at this time last year. The quantity used for irrigation purposes and for street sprinkling is constantly increasing, and it we are to escape a drought in the hydrants it will be necessary to save the 40,000 gallons used daily to lay the dust of the city by substituting salt water.

Admiral Heneage Entertains.

At eight o'clock Friday evening fourteen guests of Rear-Admiral Algernon C. F. Heneage sat down to a sumptuous dinner on board the flagship. The affair took place on the quarter deck, which had been decorated for the occasion. Among those present were Sir Matthew Baillie Begbie, Dr. Fitzgerald, Captain Hulton, of the Amphion, Captain Hennesy, of the Icarus, Lieut.-Col. Prior, M. P., Major Peters, C. E. Pooley, Q. C., and others. Music by the ship's band enlivened the proceedings. The worthy Admiral was in his happiest mood, having quite recovered from his late indisposition.

Our Boys.

The comedy of "Our Boys" attracted a small audience at the Victoria Theatre on Thursday evening, which was very discouraging to the young people whose time has been occupied for several months in preparing the piece. The principal characters were carried out most satisfactorily and the piece ran along smoothly from the time the curtain raised until the end. Mr. W. H. Whittaker, Sergt. Hewlett, Mr. F. H. Lang and Mr. E. C. Smith sustained their respective parts in a most commendable manner, Mrs. Hewlett, Miss Whittaker, Miss Drant and Miss Kelly were perfect in their parts. The comedy was appreciated by those present. The counter attractions in the city were the reason for the small audience. The amateurs should repeat the entertainment or give a Saturday matinee.

The Richest Yet.

If Texada does not prove rich in minerals, it will not be the fault of the Nanaimo newspapers. The Free Press says Wm Williams, a veteran Australian prospector, has returned from that island, bringing rich specimens from a ledge he discovered there. "The specimens show coarse gold in endless profusion permeating the rock. One piece of the rock was broken into small pieces and the gold could be seen on each separate piece of rock. Mr. Williams, who discovered the famous 'welcome' nugget at Red Hill, Ballarat, Australia, in 1875, has name his discovery after the nugget and calls it the 'Welcome' ledge." What the country wants is not more new discoveries so much as the development of some of the old ones. The condition of gold mining in the province, with so many thousands of rich mines already located, is not creditable to either the government or people.

To Welcome Sir Leonard.

Between 35 and 40 natives of New Brunswick assembled Thursday evening at the city hall, Vancouver, for the purpose of deciding upon some plan of publicly welcoming Sir Leonard Tilley on his arrival in Vancouver. Mr. J. M. O'Brien, of the World, was voted to the chair, and Mr. J. A. Russell was appointed secretary. The advisability of giving a dinner was brought forward, but was rejected owing to the fact that Sir Leonard is not in good health, and would therefore not unlikely be disinclined to participate in an elaborate affair such as a dinner. It was then decided to meet him and present him with an address of welcome. A subsequent meeting was held with Mr. O'Brien in the chair, to appoint a committee to prepare rules and a constitution for a society of New Brunswickers, and a committee was appointed for the purpose.

From Kootenay.

Mr. T. F. Sinclair reports 40 men at work at Canal Flat, Kootenay; part of the rock is yet to be finished, but it is expected to be completed in a month. The McMardock Co. is building a trail, which is expected to assist in developing their property. Mr. Armstrong is making regular trips now in his steamers on the lakes and river.

In coming out, Mr. Sinclair made the distance from Canal Flat to Golden, 130 miles, in 21½ hours, 30 miles by wagon and the balance by canoe—pretty quick time.

Messrs. Phillips & Norbury are building a steamer or catamaran to ply from Tobacco Plains to the end of the Canal. The machinery is now at Golden.

Col. Baker, M. P. P., has arrived back from Montreal, and will at once proceed with the erection of a handsome residence at Cranbrook.

Mr. Sinclair has returned, taking with him machinery to cope with the water, which at present is the only obstacle in his way.

The summer carnival will be held in Halifax Aug. 5 to 10. The preparations promise a big success.

A BAD CUTTING AFFAIR.

The Wounded Man Will Recover Though Badly Injured.

During the run over of the Princess Louise from Vancouver on Thursday the first mate, Mr. R. Turnbull, had some words with one of the deck hands named Thomas Grady and blows were exchanged. They were separated and no more was heard of the quarrel till they arrived in Victoria. Sometime after the wharf here had been reached Turnbull gave Grady an order which he refused to obey. The men were alone on the wharf and the result was that another scuffle ensued. Grady was getting the worst of it when he drew a large clasp knife and stabbed Turnbull in the back, in the thigh and on the wrist. Turnbull staggered and fell, bleeding very profusely. He was at once conveyed to the office of Dr. McNaughton Jones, where the wounds were dressed and a comfortable bed was provided for him till yesterday afternoon, when he was taken to the French Hospital. His wounds are painful, but not of an alarming character, and the doctor thinks he will soon be around again. One of the wounds came near being very dangerous, the incision being between the two arteries of the wrist.

Shortly after the stabbing of Turnbull several of the crew became involved in a free fight on the C. P. N. wharf and a man named Tom Matheson was badly cut by one Wm. Vernon. The two had commenced fighting and Vernon getting the worst of it, slashed his antagonist across the calf of the leg with a razor. Matheson bled considerably, but is not badly hurt, and is lying in his cabin.

The two men, Vernon and Grady were arrested and are confined in the city lock-up, where they will be held until the wounded men can appear against them at the preliminary trial in the police court. Both are strangers.

FOR THE BEHRING SEA.

Sailing Orders Delivered to the Captain of the Rush.

Washington, May 23.—Secretary Windom to-day signed the sailing order of the revenue steamer Rush, directing that she shall, immediately upon receipt of her instructions, proceed to Ounalaska and then cruise diligently in Behring Sea for the purpose of warning all persons against entering such waters for the purpose of violation of section 1956 of the revised statutes, and arresting all persons and seizing all vessels found to be or to have been engaged in any violation of the laws of the United States therein.

The commanding officer of the Rush is also provided with copies of the act of March 2, 1889, and the President's proclamation of March 29, regarding the protection of seal and salmon fisheries, and instructed to enforce their provisions.

The Rush is now at San Francisco, ready for sea, and will sail immediately upon receipt of the orders, which were mailed at Washington this afternoon. The revenue steamer Bear, which is now fitting out at San Francisco for an expedition to Point Barrow, Alaska, has also been designated to assist in the protection of the Alaskan fisheries, and will follow the Rush in a short time. Her orders are now being prepared at the Treasury Department.

Cannery Burned.

The salmon cannery of the Pyramid harbor Packing Company at Chilcat, Alaska, was burned on the morning of April 23rd. The loss is between $45,000 and $50,000. The company was fully insured in San Francisco. The fire was of incendiary origin. The property was owned by D. N. Beck & Sons, of San Francisco.

Knife Wielders.

William Henry Vernon was arrested last night charged with cutting and wounding Samuel Wilson with a razor. The razor was found on his person when searched in jail.

Thos. Grady was also arrested yesterday, charged with stabbing Robert Turnbull, mate of the Princess Louise. Grady was found to be severely cut in the knee with what appears to have been a knife. The services of a doctor were necessary yesterday morning to attend to the wound. He does not know who stabbed him and did not know that he was stabbed till brought to jail. Turnbull is pretty badly cut and is at the French Hospital. Both cases will come up on Monday.

Baseball.

We may be slightly enthused, but the more we see of baseball the more satisfied we are that the game has come to stay. Noting the league games while the players go through their parts with a certain promptitude and skill, there is not the interest attached as when trophies are offered as the reward of superior skill and nerve. In yesterday's game, between the Amities and Townsends, there was a double interest in the fact that the latter team was from the other side. Local pride was called into requisition, and one of the most exciting games for many a long day was played. The Amities sustained the reputation they had already won, that of being a good all-round team. Their's is not the strength of two or three men, but the aggregate strength of nine. Particularly brilliant none of them, unless we except the batting of Burnes, but all of them excellent in the several parts they have to perform. This was apparent yesterday at the outset of the game, and it was continued to the end. The Amities won by their united excellence very materially assisted by their unvarying good nature, which contributes to keeping the nerves steady. Their rivals are a good team, but their strength lays, apparently, in two or three men, although it is possible that being on strange ground they were less cool than they would have been at home. It seems to be morally certain that our American cousins on the Sound with all of their ability to excel in their own particular game have found antagonists worthy of their cards in their neighbors, the Amities.

Mrs. Hogg Leaves Vancouver.

Shortly before the steamship Premier sailed, said the Vancouver News, a little girl was seen to go aboard and stop timidly and hesitatingly before the door leading into the saloon. She then stepped in and looked about enquiringly. She was evidently looking for some one and she had not long to wait. A lady with a child in her arms came forward and after talking with her for a moment stooped down and kissed her and then burst into tears. The child seemed as much affected as the woman and wept bitterly. She put her arm about the woman's neck as if consoling with her and trying mutely to comfort her. To the majority of spectators the incident conveyed no meaning except the expression of grief at a parting such as one almost daily sees, but there were a few who saw deeper and who recognized in the tears of the lady a woman's despair over a wrecked life and blighted fame. The lady was Mrs. Amanda Hogg and the child was her step-daughter. The pair seemed oblivious of their surroundings and it was not till the whistle sounded that they changed their position. The girl then returned to shore and Mrs. Hogg went back to her seat to weep in solitude. There she remained till the boat left the dock. She is going to Seattle where she will remain till the next Assize court is held, when she will return to give her evidence. Mr. Hogg was seen in the afternoon, but refused to give any information as to her movements. He said that he was not furnishing the money to pay her expenses, but would not say who did furnish it. He had allowed her to have possession of her child, as he had concluded it was perhaps better to be not too severe. He had assurances that she would return when wanted. He stated that he had no intention of taking proceedings for divorce in Canada, as it would be too costly, but he left the impression that it was possible he might in the future take such a course across the border.

TO THE TIMES ONLY.

The Celebration in Winnipeg—Statue to Dr. Ryerson.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Winnipeg, May 23.—The seventieth birthday of her Majesty was celebrated right loyally in Winnipeg and Manitoba yesterday. In this city the chief attraction was the baseball matches between Fargo and Winnipeg. Fargo won by 8 to 9 in an exhibition game in the morning. In the afternoon game for the international championship, Winnipeg won by 14 to 3. The lacrosse match, Winnipeg against the 90th, resulted in a draw.

STATUE OF DR. RYERSON.

Toronto, May 25.—The imposing bronze statue which has been erected in the grounds of the Ontario Education Department, in memory of the late Dr. Ryerson, was unveiled this afternoon, by Sir Alexander Campbell, in the presence of a vast assemblage of people.

THE FIRST GAME.

The Toronto's won the first lacrosse match of the season with the Shamrocks—6 goals to 1.

WRITTEN WITH HIS BLOOD.

Pittsburg, May 25.—A special report that Frank Compton killed his wife Dora at West Pittston this morning, then cut his own throat, dying two hours later.

After killing his wife and cutting his own throat he walked down stairs and with his forefinger wrote the word "jealousy" upon the sittingroom wall.

PULLED OVER THE DASHBOARD.

David McBean, farmer and implement agent, of Bamebridge, was pulled over the dashboard of his buggy and kicked in the head by his runaway horse. His skull is fractured and he will probably die.

TORONTO'S NEW CIVIC PALACE.

E. J. Lennox, architect of the proposed new county and city building which the citizens of Toronto on Saturday decided to build, says excavation will be commenced within a month, and that by the end of the season the foundation will be raised to the level of the ground.

From Yokohama.

The steamship Batavia, Capt. Auld, arrived at Vancouver at 2 o'clock yesterday morning from China and Japan with a full complement of passengers, including about 50 Chinese.

For the South.

The Mexico sailed Friday afternoon for San Francisco with the following passengers from this port: E. H. Marston and wife, Mrs. Aultam, Rev. D. Jennings and wife, Miss Smith and Mrs. H. S. Mason.
